Madison Academic

I drove by Madison Academic today and they were beginning to pour some concrete on what looked like the footings. Will those test reports be made available to the Construction Oversight representative upon starting?

Yes, testing reports and all test reports as well as all inspection reports by engineers, architectural reps, owners/lenders representative, will be available to City of Jackson representative; as all reporting and test and approval data that are already being made available to the JMCSS representative, the CRA Board members (development partner) and their administrator (Stan Pliant). HCEP board members (building owner) and the county commission, per Chris Alexander.
